A Woman's Awful Peril.

"There is only one chance to save your life and that is through an operation" were the startling words heard by Mrs. I. B. Then she began to use Electric Bitters which wholly cured her. It's a wonderful stomach, liver and kidney remedy. Cures dyspepsia, loss of appetite, etc. Only 50c. Guaranteed. For sale by H. Alex Stoke.

At The Pan-American.

Lyman H. Howe is to moving pictures what P. T. Barnum was to the circus, the acknowledged prince of showman and the undeviating creator of new features of entertainment. As evidence of the fact that Mr. Howe keeps step with the lofty demands, his series of new moving pictures which will be revealed to the public on Thursday, Jan. 16, at Public School Assembly hall, will give eminent proof. Probably no one set will give greater satisfaction than the views from the Pan-American Exposition.

The audience will be seemingly carried along the grand canal, under arches thronged with passing vehicles and people; past the magnificent buildings which are marvels of architectural beauty; along quays that reflect the life and splendor of the busy place; under spraying branches of trees that bend in a breeze evidently blown from the balmy bosom of Lake Erie, and completely encircling the Exposition. It is a fascinating ride and one fully appreciated by those who have enjoyed it at the Exposition and by those who have not. Don't fail to see the coming entertainment.

Our Want Column.

Almost everyone wants to buy something or sell something and don't know where to find a purchaser or where to buy, and we have decided to run an exclusive want column, which will help people out of just such a dilemma. If you want to buy or sell a cow, or hire a kitchen maid, or sell a second-hand sewing machine, or stove, or buggy, or want to trade a bicycle, or if a woman wants a seamstress, or a man wants to sell a threshing machine, this column will help them out. It will send the kitchen maid to the employer and it will find a man to put his money against the sewing machine or threshing machine. If you want to buy or sell anything, try our want column. One cent per word is what it will cost you for an ad in the want column.

Says He Was Tortured.
